The mission of the Quad City Animal Welfare Center (QCAWC) is saving lives and giving homeless animals a second chance. This is only possible because of our incredible volunteers. Their time, energy, and compassion are the heart of everything we do, from walking dogs and cuddling cats to helping with cleaning, laundry, and community events. Each day, we rely on their dedication to ensure every animal receives the love and care they deserve, and we are endlessly grateful for the difference they make in both our shelter and our community.

Volunteering at QCAWC is about more than just tasks. It's about being part of something bigger. Every hour given and every animal comforted creates a ripple effect of kindness that extends far beyond our walls. We're always looking for new animal lovers to join our volunteer family, whether you can give a few hours each week or just help occasionally. If you've been thinking about getting involved, now is the perfect time. Together, we can continue to save lives, find loving homes, and give every animal the second chance they deserve.
